

We still receive tele-marketing calls, mostly between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. in spite of signing up for the do-not-call listing. To make this regulation weaker because the federal version is 'less stringent' is absurd. What they should do is make the federal version stonger, but I guess the lobbyists will have their way. Leave the NJ regulation the way it is.